OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

CAMPBELL IS EASILY recognizable now from the air because of the 18-story office building "The Towers" which has become a landmark (air-mark?) (But we doubt that it is visible from the sea.)

While we were on vacation we were able to get a bird's eye view of Campbell through the courtesy of some friends we were visiting in Salinas.

They are part-owners of a Bonanza four-passenger plane. One morning our friend, Bob Wherrit, took us for a spin over the Santa Cruz mountains and into the Santa Clara Valley where we circled. "The Towers" as well as our own residence which is easily oriented from that point.

Although we knew we were really too high up to do much good photographically speaking, we snapped pictures like crazy through the glass with our Instamatic as we flew over the area.

The results, surprisingly, were pretty fair.

If you know where to look on the photos, you can pick out "The Towers".

And, of course, our house can be located.

At least it can be pointed where it is supposed to be.

"JACK AND HIS HAREM" was how one guy described the way the local branch of Wells Fargo looked to him one afternoon recently.

When he walked into the bank he thought he had gotten into the powder room by mistake.

That is, until he saw Jack Payne at his desk, which made a grand total of two males on hand, counting himself.

And we can verify that.

When we researched the situation a short time later that same afternoon, we counted 16 women in the bank.

And only two men (Payne and Vierhus).

The percentage of females isn't always that high, we understand. It must be noted, that Mike Ivicevich, assistant manager, was off that particular day.

There ARE quite a number of men who are customers also. They just didn't happen to be around that particular time.

HISTORICALLY, POSTmaster appointments have been politically-oriented over the years, in this country.

From time to time suggestions have been submitted and efforts have been made to take the postmaster-appointments out of the political patronage circus.

Many career postal workers have been promoted to postmasters, something unheard of not too long ago.

The political plum crop for postmasters today is nothing like it used to be.

There used to be a wholesale turnover of postmasters every time the national administration had a change in parties.

You could count on it.

In stark contrast, our grapevine (semi-reliable) informs us that since the Nixon administration has come into power, there has not been a postmaster appointed on a permanent basis. As a vacancy occurs it is filled by an "officer-in-charge" or acting postmaster.

No one seems to know why the delay. Rumors have it that one of these days the entire postal department will under-go a radical change, including being taken over by a private corporation...

But don't hold your breath.....

WHAT BROUGHT ON this treatise about postmasters, of course, is the fact that our good friend, Jim Hurley, Campbell postmaster for the past six years, has retired (ef-

Students "take over" city hall

Students from three of the area high schools (Campbell, Del Mar and West next Monday, Nov. 10, will assume the roles of city councilmen and department heads in the annual "Student Government Day".

The "take over" by the 15 students this year is part of the annual "Education-Business Week" sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

During the week (culminating with the CofC luncheon Thursday at the Gaslighter Theater in Campbell) educators will visit various business and industrial firms in the community.

Luncheon speaker will be Bill Deal, coordinator of community services at West Valley College. His topic will be "Has the Business Community Failed the Youth of Today".

The students begin their "take-over" on Monday at 8:30 a.m. when they will assemble in the City Council chambers at the City Hall where they will be instructed by Dr. Nick Monsanto, high school district superintendent.

Mayor Homer Hyde will welcome them and City Manager Bob Stephens will explain the purpose of the "Student Government Day".

After a tour of the various city installations, the students will be guests of the Rotary Club at luncheon. They will return to school in the afternoon but will again assemble in the council chambers at 7:30 p.m. when the students who have been designated councilmen will conduct a mock City Council meeting preceding the regular meeting of the City Council.

Students acting in place of the regular council, Mayor Homer Hyde, Vice-Mayor Dean Chamberlin and Councilmen Bill Smeed, Ralph Doetsch and Dr. Ed Rogers will be Steve Borsgard, Campbell High, mayor; Bob Hambelton, Campbell, vice-mayor; Cyndi Brooks, Del Mar, councilman (Smeed), Terry Bulliam, Campbell, councilman (Rogers), and Dave Charlet, Westmont, councilman (Doetsch).

Todd Miller, Campbell, will assume the position of Wally Byron, building official, and Jim Coglaninese, of Campbell, that of City Attorney Joe Bonacina.

Fire Chief George Maxwell's counterpart will be Bob Fiock, of Del Mar, and Police Chief John Morgan will have Ed Boogaard, of Westmont.

Earl Poyfress of Del Mar will take over from Geoffrey Whitaker, finance director and Mary Ann Chalmers of Del Mar will sit in for City Manager Bob Stephens.

Paul Ryan of Del Mar will take the place of Ken Hickman, superintendent of public works with Dan Jones of Westmont taking the place of Bill Wren, director of public works.

Sandy Marino of Westmont will fill in for City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan and Howard Gibson of Westmont will be Planning Director Art Kee's counterpart.

Sanitation crew finds diamond after 8 months

Thanks to the skill of Sanitation District Four personnel, a lost diamond ring is not necessarily lost forever. Mrs. Irene Thoerner can testify to that.

Eight months ago Mrs. Thoerner, who lives in Santa Cruz, while visiting at 2205 Winchester Blvd. was cleaning her diamond ring in the bathroom. She wrapped it in tissue paper and set it above the toilet. Then, she recalls, she later absent-mindedly brushed the tissue and ring into the toilet.

And flushed it away!!

Mrs. Thoerner contacted the County Sanitation District No. 4 the day after the ring was lost. A sewer maintenance crew cleaned the lateral sewer from the residence and then cleaned the 360-feet of the eight-inch sewer line between manholes. But they failed to find the ring.

Eight months later, the sewer was again cleaned. Since the ring could possibly still be in the sewer, 30 lbs. of debris from the sewer section were removed and carefully sifted, and EUREKA—the lost ring was found.

Mrs. Thoerner received her lost ring and the case of the missing ring was closed.

Working on the clean-up crew were Edward Zarate, Ralph L. Johnson, Norman P. Slifkoff and Richard W. Woodruff of "District Four".

The visual kind

City hears about new "pollution"

Air pollution.

Water pollution and noise pollution.

And now it's "visual pollution".

Although four appeals from Planning Commission actions will feature the City Council meeting next Monday, Nov. 10, discussion over an alleged violation of "visual pollution" by the city should prove to be more enlivening.

The regular session of the Council will be preceded at 7:30 p.m. by a special Council meeting conducted by students as part of the annual "Student Government Day". (See special story and pictures.)

The "visual pollution" issue was raised in a letter to Mayor Homer Hyde this week from John Stanley of Boulder Creek, Calif. He charges that the City of Campbell has polluted the environment by allowing the construction of the 18-story building alongside of Highway 17 and north of E. Campbell Ave.

In his letter Stanley recognizes that the people of this city apparently have never heard of visual pollution which he defines as "the placement of an object in an unnatural position and normally involves man's construction of an unnatural form in the wrong place".

Stanley adds "The City of Campbell has violated our rights by allowing the construction of the 18-story building....

He further claims that the skyline previously was pleasing to the eye and mind but now "each time people pass Campbell they are confronted by this monstrous intrusion of an unnatural form into the skyline".

Stanley concludes: "Mistakes are forgivable. Prove that Campbell cares for the quality of our environment. Immediately institute steps that will prevent this kind of disturbance in the future".

The appeals from the Planning Commission involve (1) the problem of a proposed canopy at the Douglas Oil Station at Winchester and Hamilton; (2) a proposed roof sign for Roundhouse Liquors in the Kirkwood Plaza; (3) a zone change request by R. V. Cloud that would allow an auto center to be built; and (4) conditions levied in approving the use permit for a service station on the former Gomes property as requested by Anthony C. Morici.

In another action scheduled by the City Council Monday night, Mrs. Joseph Souto, of 236 N. Central, will be presented with a certificate on behalf of the city by Mrs. Jeanette Watson, chairman of the city's beautification committee.

Mrs. Suoto will be officially commended for consistently maintaining the "cleanest lot in town".

The Council will also be asked to approve a permit to conduct Christmas tree sales on a lot in the industrial area. It has been a Council policy in the past to limit such sales to commercial areas only.

Reports are also scheduled to be made on the problem raised by residents of Rosemary who back up to the Colonial apartments (in San Jose). The Rosemary residents complained about the lack of proper fencing, etc. between the apartments and the homes.

Police Chief John Morgan is also scheduled to report on the status of parking fines levied against West Valley College students who over-park on the streets.

Gas station deferred

Commercial complex, restaurant for Gomes Ranch win approval

Plans for a commercial complex and a restaurant that will go on the former Gomes Ranch property (between Hamilton and Latimer) received approval of the Planning Commission Monday night.

But action on the proposed service station for the center was deferred to allow for modifications of the design.

Prior approval had been given the developer, Anthony C. Morici, for a 780-unit apartment complex that will be located on the bulk of the property.

The commercial zoning extends along Hamilton for 1000-feet at a depth of 300-feet. The overall plan for the property also includes the extension of Third St. to Hamilton from Latimer. A service station is planned for the intersection of the new street and Hamilton.

Planning Commission members have indicated that they think the service station should be of a reverse design and, for that reason, deferred action.

The use permit that was originally granted for the station specified that type of design and also that no building permit will be issued until the commercial center is 50% underway.

Site plans approved Monday for the property included a commercial complex of approximately 52,000 square feet for retail sales and office use and a free-standing restaurant consisting of 5,865 square feet.

According to the proposal submitted the building will be of a combination of concrete slab, concrete block and stucco walls with windows facing Hamilton. The roof will be of the mansard type with tile shingles.

Needy kids get break on meals

The Board of Trustees of the Campbell Union School District has adopted a policy for free or reduced price meals for needy pupils, Neal Royer, superintendent, reported this week.

Anyone who is interested in information concerning this policy may contact Mrs. Pearl Calabrese, supervisor of food service at her office, 240 N. Harrison St., Campbell.

In determining the minimum qualifications for participation in this program the welfare department scale will be used as a guideline, Royer added.

LUNCHEON SPEAKER---Bill Deal, coordinator of community services at West Valley College, will speak on "Has the Business Community Failed the Youth of Today" at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon, Thursday, Nov. 13.

The luncheon, which will climax the annual education-business week sponsored by the CofC, will be held at the Gaslighter Theater in Campbell.

First time ever

St. Lucy's expects 1200 at first parish dinner

More than 1200 St. Lucy's parishioners have indicated that they will attend the parish dinner to be held Thursday, Nov. 6 at the Pavilion Hall, Santa Clara County Fairgrounds.

The monumental task of personally contacting all the 2400 parish members was directed by Mrs. Ralph Doetsch. Approximately 90 hostesses have been assigned families to call for reservations for the dinner which will be catered, thus freeing everyone to attend. Each hostess will be responsible for seeing that their families are properly seated and served. Teen-age girls will be on hand to to usher.

Speaking at the dinner will be Police Chief John Morgan, John G. Matthews, attorney and John Natly. The parish council program will be discussed and plans for the parish future will be outlined.

Ed Grossheider is serving as general chairman for the dinner.

If by an oversight some parish members have not been contacted by the telephone committee, they are still welcome to attend the dinner, the committee members advise.

It's anti-litter month in town

November will be proclaimed as Anti-Litter Month in Campbell at the Nov. 10 Campbell City council meeting.

At the meeting an award will be presented to Mrs. Joseph Souto as owner of the lot judged most consistently clean in 1969 by the Campbell Beautification committee.

Mrs. Suoto resides at 236 N. Central Ave.

During the month free litter bags will be distributed throughout the town by different organizations and they will also be available at the Chamber of Commerce office, 100 W. Rincon Ave. A goal of litter-free streets and lots in Campbell has been announced by the committee headed by Mrs. Jeanette Watson.

All adults and children are being urged to use the litter cans provided by the businesses and on the city streets. New city-type garbage cans have now been installed at the Kirkwood Plaza and an effort on the part of citizens shopping in the area will result in even the smallest citizens being trained in being a clean-up bird rather than a litter-bug.

Editorial

Better understanding

In cooperation with the school districts, each year the Campbell Chamber of Commerce sponsors an education-business day. The school districts and the CofC alternate as hosts for the day.

This annual event is of extreme value in the development of the needed rapport between the educators and business community, if a community is to take full advantage of its potential.

Especially do we believe this project is worthwhile in Campbell, for the school districts are the biggest businesses in our community.

The Campbell elementary district, for example, employs approximately 750 people with an annual payroll that exceeds $5 million. The high school and junior college obviously add greatly to this figure.

And that is BIG business.

Too often a mythical line is drawn between the schools and the rest of a community.

School people are often accused of being so wrapped up in their own activities that they fail to recognize that the schools are a part and parcel of a community.

Admittedly, just getting together for one day each year is not enough, if the coordination and cooperation between these two segments of the community is to reach the desired objective, i.e., a better understanding of the overall picture of a community.

But it does help.

This year under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce, the education-business program has been expanded into a week-long series of activities.

Educators will visit business establishments from Monday through Thursday culminating with a luncheon on Thursday.

In addition, on Monday, Nov. 10, "Student Government Day", students from the various high schools in the district will assume various city positions, ranging from being city councilmen to department heads.

On Monday, at 7:30 p.m., after the students have been exposed during the day to some of the problems of city government, a "council meeting" will be held with students in the chairs of the regular city council.

At noon the student city government officials will be guests of the Rotary Club.

These events may be considered mere window-dressing by some of the more cynical-minded citizens.

But, in our opinion, both the CofC education-business program and the student government project are of extreme value to the community.

Mere growth of a city is incidental, if there is no meeting of the minds of what is desired in a community.

What we are trying to say, of course, is that the problems that confront a community are the problems of all and are not on the shoulders of just one group.

We recognize that the problems and goals that face this community are not confined to the city limits of Campbell.

Yet we submit that the City of Campbell administration provides the spring-board that can be used to the advantage of the entire area.

We believe sincerely that exposing the high school students to the city government operation even for one day will prove of great value to all concerned.

We even think this exposure will help the youngsters become better-informed citizens of the future.

And it might just possibly slightly close this so-called "generation gap" we have heard so much about.

Nice going, Jim

Jim Hurley has retired as Campbell Postmaster after six years in office and 30 years of postal service.

We sincerely commend Jim for a job well done.

There is no other public service that has to deal so constantly with the public day in and day out as does the postal department.

And there probably is no other public service that has been subjected to so much criticism from the public.

On the local scene, Jim Hurley, in the six years he has been top man at the Campbell office, has served the community capably and under many trying conditions.

Jim has been a conscientious public servant who is held in esteem by both the patrons of the post office and the employees.

The Campbell Press is pleased to pay tribute to this sincere government employee who at all times has recognized that it was the public that he represented and served.

Jim Hurley did his job well and we wish him well in his retirement.

fective last Saturday).

We are going to miss Jim at the post office, for he was always tremendously cooperative and helpful.

We hope that Jim will continue to keep active in community affairs, for he has always been a willing and hard worker for any civic improvement project that comes along.

But, shucks, Jim, now that you are retired, you should have more time than before to devote to civic affairs.

In all sincerity, now that you've hung up your stamps, we wish you a happy retirement. May you enjoy it for years and years and may all letters arrive on time.

GETTING BACK TO THIS political bit about postmasters, for the record, Jim Hurley was a career postal employee. He had been working in the San Jose post office since 1946 when he was appointed Campbell postmaster in 1963.

There was a Democratic administration at the time, you may recall.

And Jim was a good Democrat.

Some of you also may recall that when Mrs. Ellis Litynsky was appointed in 1957 there was a Republican administration.

And Ellis was a good Republican.

Then, if you go back 22 years before that, say circa 1935, when the late Ira Grim was appointed postmaster, it was in a Democratic administration. (FDR)

And Grim was a Democrat.

Postmaster Grim, incidentally, continued to serve as postmaster during the first term of Eisenhower and part of the second.

And Hurley has served a year in a Republican administration while Ellis appointed as a REP served four years in a DEM administration.

Thus it seems, if Campbell can be taken as an illustration, that unlike the good old days at the turn of the century or before, now-a-days there is no wholesale removal of postmasters when a political party is overturned.

And a postmaster in Campbell holds onto his office after he is appointed, even if his party affiliation is different than the person in the White House.

But our educated guess would be that, if and when a new postmaster is appointed in Campbell, that person will just happen to be a registered Republican.

Next question.

SPEAKING OF POLITICS, some months ago Mayor Homer Hyde, general manager of Campbell Water Co., was appointed to the Bay Area Water Pollution Control Board by Governor Reagan.

Although Homer is a REP, his water background makes him well-qualified for the position, so politics probably had very little to do with the appointment.

But that's not our point.

Recently Homer was surprised to receive a telegram from newly-elected U.S. Representative Barry Goldwater, Jr., (R-L.A.) congratulating him on his appointment to the water control board.

Homer, of course, was appreciative of the kind words from young Barry, whom he has never met and obviously is not in his district. (Homer probably did vote for Barry's dad but that hardly merited the wire.)

Oh, well, speaking of politics.....

A CAMPBELL CITY OFFICIAL recently was cited for driving with his lights on high beam.

He was cited within the city limits of Campbell (in fact, the police officer followed the guy home and wrote the ticket at the driveway of his home).

The city official admitted he was in error, for he did not know his high beams were on.

So he took the ticket and paid his $9 fine in the San Jose muni-court.

It was a San Jose cop, who, in our opinion, had no business in the City of Campbell in the first place, who did the citing.

But even if the San Jose police officer could justify his ticketing by stretching this pursuit business, the fine should have been paid in the local muni-court so this city would get credit for it.

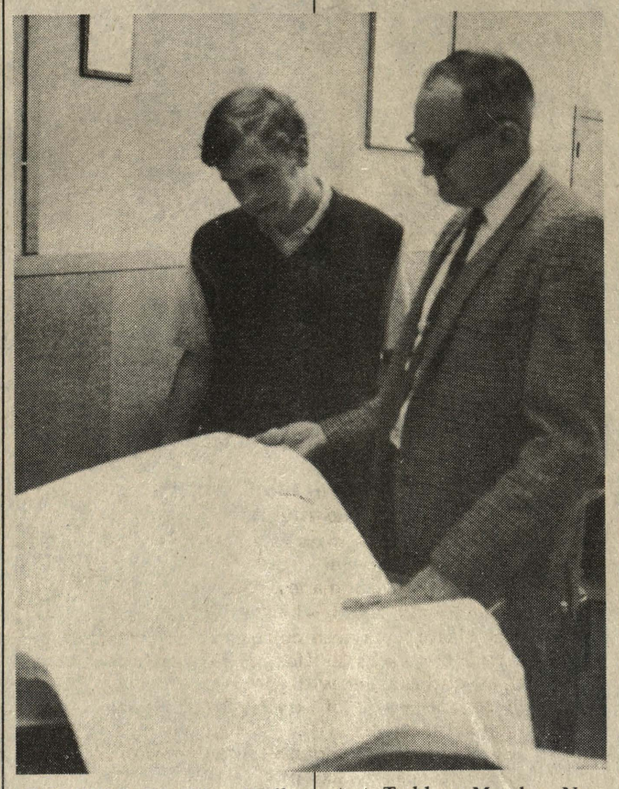
Although we think a $9 fine is mighty high for high beams, there was a traffic violation, so the citing could be justifiable.

But that nine bucks should not go to San Jose.

We hope Police Chief John Morgan asks for this city's cut of that dough.

And we didn't know that John's crew needed help from the outside in minor traffic violations.

HIGH FINANCE---Earl Poyfress (left), of Del Mar High School, will take over from Geoffrey Whitaker (right), city finance director, in the annual "Student Government Day" next Monday, Nov. 10.



CHECKING PLANS --- Wally Byron, city building official, shows Todd Miller, of Campbell High, a set of plans that must be checked by his department before construction can start. Todd on Monday, Nov. 10, will act as "building official" of Campbell in the annual "Student Government Day".

Gold coin turns up in UNICEF box

Two honest little girls, Rosemary and Loraine Sneed, of 241 Victor Ave., went out collecting for UNICEF Halloween night. And when they got home they discovered that one of the coins they had collected was a bright shiny $5 gold piece.

Not knowing from which household it came, the two youngsters decided they would sell the coin and donate the money to UNICEF.

In the meantime Mrs. Robert Gardner, 971 W. Latimer found that the 1898 $5 gold piece that had been in her purse after it came loose from a bracelet, was missing. She remembered putting some coins in a UNICEF box, but, of course didn't know which ones. Mrs. Gardner contacted the UNICEF headquarters and spent the next few days going through the collection boxes looking for the coin, but to no avail.

Finally, she contacted the Coventry School principal, Don Leister, who announced the loss over the intercom. The sisters recognized the description of their UNICEF contribution and immediately went to the office where the owner was reunited with her keepsake.

The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Sneed, Jr., and Mrs. Gardner is planning on donating a sum to UNICEF in their name.

Courts Tavern loses $1500 to armed robbers

Four robbers struck Court's Tavern, 1671 S. Bascom Ave. early Thursday morning, and left with $1500 after leaving the bartender, Derald Bennett, lying on the floor with his arms and legs taped and jerking all the phones off the wall.

Bennett was hit in the stomach by one of the robbers who flourished a gun and ordered him to get the money out of the registers–fast. Bennett complied and the men cleaned out the registers and the safe before fleeing in a car which had been parked near by.

During the same week, Reginald Gazay, 285 Esther Ave. lost a coin and stamp collection valued at $1000 after his home was entered. Tena Osgood, 150 Fulton Ave., was also victimized when the window screen was cut and window forced open by a burglar, who made off with clothing, diamond rings and other jewelry valued at $1500.

Plans were also approved by the Planning Commission for Leonard Pritchard for a 1,555 square foot retail sales and office building at 24 S. Second St. across from Wells Fargo and directly behind Campbell Liquor and Sporting Goods.

The lot contains 3,618 square feet and was the site of a former dwelling that was destroyed by fire.

Approved also were plans submitted by Robert F. Armstrong for an athletic center consisting of a swimming pool, gym, locker building and social hall at 476 W. Rincon Ave. adjacent to the city-owned Rincon Park.

Plans for a similar installation were approved for the site in February of this year but have since expired.

The Commission also recommended M-1-S zoning for two lots and R-1 for two more on White Oaks Ave. now in the process of being annexed to the city.

O. H. Nelson was granted a six-month extension for his plans for a warehouse at 520 McGlincey Lane. The Commission stipulated that there must be a 10-foot landscaped buffer between the property and the residential area.

SEEKS STATE OFFICE---Assemblyman George Milias (R-Gilroy) who has served in the state legislature since 1962, this week announced his candidacy for the office of Secretary of State of California.

Milias, 44, has served as chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, a rancher-businessman, he is a life-long resident of Santa Clara County and is a graduate of San Jose State with a master's degree from Stanford. Milias stated that, if incumbent Frank M. Jordan seeks reelection, he will remove himself from the race.

PHARMACY PHACTS

Although scalp disease is a threat to hair health, investigation has shown no evidence that dandruff can cause baldness.

A program of scalp hygiene is helpful. Good grooming should consist of daily brushing, gentle massage, with a weekly shampoo. An effective dandruff-control aid will usually make the job easier.

Of all the ills that beset mankind, the humble headache is by far the most universal. Only hunger and fatigue bring more physical discomfort to man than the headache.

The steelhead trout also develops coronary disease when spawning, but unlike the salmon, it often heads downstream after depositing its eggs in fresh water - and as it reaches salt water, the disease disappears.

Double ring ceremony unites Mr. and Mrs. Le Moin Stille

MR. AND MRS. LE MOIN STILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Le Moin Glenn Stille are now making their home in San Jose following their double ring wedding held recently at St. Lucy's Catholic church. The nuptial mass was read by Father Martin Brewer of St. Clare's Church, a family friend.

Susan Ann Pisano made a lovely picture in her wedding gown of organza and Venise lace fashioned with a beaded bodice, wedding ring neckline, full puffed sleeves with deep cuffs and a detachable chapel length train. Holding the brunette bride's bouffant veil was a Camelot headpiece. She carried a cascade of eucharis lilies with stephanotis on top a Bible given her by Mrs. Lewis Milligan, the matron of honor. The Bible was wound with prayer beads given by the bride's sisters.

Susan's honor attendants were gowned alike in pink chiffon floor length gowns with slightly scooped necklines and cap sleeves. The empire bodice was emphasized with a back detail of white satin and a white satin bow trimmed the top with tiny pink covered buttons vertically placed to the floor.

Chiffon triple bows trimmed with Venise lace made the matching headpieces, securing the demi-veils worn by all of the attendants, who carried white baskets filled with pink and white carnations. Preceding the bride down the aisle were bridesmaids Diane Orlando, Pat Pisano, Mary Ann Pisano, Mrs. William Bland, and Marguerite Pisano, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid with Linda Pisano, also a sister, as flower girl.

The new Mrs. Stille is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Joseph Pisano, Sr., of Cardiff Court. An alumni of Blackford High School, she is presently a student at San Jose State College where she is working toward her elementary teaching credentials, and is al ployed.

For her daughter's weddi . Pisano chose a powder blue matching coat and dress ensemble with p d rhinestone accessories and a green lady's-slipper corsage.

The bridegroom is the of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stille of Tracy, and a graduate of San Jose State College. He is now employed by the San Jose police department. Serving his cousin as best man was Robert Machado. Ushering were Nicholas J. Pisano, Jr., Larry Orlando, Jr., Dan Caputo, Jr., Bruce Hunter, Steve Volz, R. D. Moore and Irwin Baker.

Mrs. Stille chose a pink brocade print dress with a pink chiffon coat, matching accessories and a green Lady's-slipper corsage.

During the ceremony a six-member choir was led by the bride's uncle, Frank Pisano, who also sang at the marriage of the bride's parents 24 years ago, and a bouquet was placed at the statue of the Blessed Mother by the newly-weds. As the new Mrs. Stille left the church she gave her mother a long-stemmed red rose as a remembrance of her love for her mother.

The newly-weds greeted nearly 500 guests at a champagne buffet reception held at Naperdak Hall where the five-tiered pink and white cake was shared by the bride and groom. Dancing was enjoyed to the music of an orchestra led by the bride's cousin, and the pink and white theme was carried out in the hall decorations, with the bride's table decorated with a silver-threaded and white embossed shirred tablecloth with matching skirt.

For her going away outfit the new Mrs. Stille chose a cocoa brown long sleeve voile dress with a matching beige sleeveless coat, matching and gold accessories and a green Lady's-slipper corsage. A wedding trip to Canada, including Lake Louise, was planned by the newly-weds.

Campbell Garden Club hears conservation panel

Campbell Garden Club members will be hearing a panel speaker from the Planned Parenthood organization at their Nov. 12 meeting which will be devoted to the theme of conservation. According to Mrs. Ward Brannon, conservation chairman in charge of the program, "Every single conservation problem can be traced to over-population of the world today", so it is very fitting that limitation of the population must come first.

Other panelists scheduled for the program include Mrs. Brian Gage, representing the Citizens Against Air Pollution; a speaker from the Sierra Club and Mrs. Kenneth Smullen, the Parenthood speaker. A question and answer period will follow the panel discussion. The program will start at 10 a.m. in the Fireside Room of the Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 W. Campbell Ave.

Following the program, lunch will be enjoyed with dessert and coffee provided by the hospitality committee, and Mrs. B.A. Brigham, Miss Violette Costable and Mrs. Ernest Bryan under the chairmanship of Mrs. Stanis Rohde.

During the last month, Garden Club members held two workshops at the home of Mrs. Lou Marotti at which time decorations for the Christmas Lane exhibit were made and miniature permanent flower arrangements were completed for patients at Valley Medical Center.

The Nov. 12 meeging is open to the public and further information may be had by calling 295-2997 or 241-5769.

Grange elects officers at Nov. 11 meeting

Orchard City Grange members will hold election of officers at the Nov. 11 meeting, which will start off with a 6:30 p.m. potluck supper.

On Nov. 15 the annual Grange bazaar will be held in the Grange Hall and members will be working on that project for the next two weeks. A card party will be held that same evening at 8 p.m. and members are asked to bring canned goods for the door prize and other articles to be used as prizes for the games.

During the October 28 meeting, Grange members were entertained with a Hawaiian program put on by Mrs. Irene Lewers and group. Officers from the Mt. Hamilton Grange were guests for the evening, and refreshments were served on beautifully decorated tables.

The hall is now equipped with overhead lighting and a speaker system which is a great addition to the hall facilities.

Dolls are now available for dressing for the annual Goodwill Doll tea to be held in December. The Orchard City Grange will hold their annual Christmas party on Dec. 19 with entertainment planned by the "California Cowboys" and the Campbell High School choir.

A BIRTHDAY OBSERVANCE---Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hyde were among the guests gathered at the home of Baha Ghotb in San Jose recently when members of the Iranian community in the area gathered to observe the 50th birthday of His Imperial Majesty, Mohamad Reza Pahlavi, Shahansha of Iran. Highlight of the buffet observance came when the celebrants gathered in front of the TV set as the Shah was speaking from New York as part of his world tour on which he plans to visit every nation of the world. The Ghotb home was decorated in the Iranian colors of red, white and green and the beautiful four-layer cake was topped with the Iranian and United States flags.

ON CAPITOL HILL
with "Charlie" Gubser

The plight of senior Americans who have been heavily punished by inflation is one of our most serious domestic problems. Those who have worked and saved for their old-age have actually been robbed of those savings by inflation and in many cases are forced to live at below a poverty level.

92% of persons over 65 are eligible for Social Security benefits and 16.5 million were drawing cash payments at the end of 1968. A Senate Special Committee has found that a majority of senior citizens have incomes estimated by the Bureau of Labor Statistics as inadequate to maintain a moderate standard of living.

Three of every ten persons over 65 live below the poverty line, compared to one in nine younger persons. Hardest hit are women living alone, with six out of every ten classified as being poor.

The Senate report predicts that most persons who retire in the future will do so on incomes which will be less than half of what they previously earned. (In 1962 retirees received more than half of what younger wage earners received; but in 1967 they received only 46.2%.) The recent trend has been for men to retire before they reach the age of 65 and to accept reduced benefits. This type of retirement has increased 58% since 1962 and now over 70% of male Social Security recipients get reduced benefits because of early retirement. This trend will make the pinch upon senior citizens even more serious.

Social Security was originally intended to augment savings and private retirement plans, both of which have been cancelled out by inflation. As a result Social Security payments are inadequate and we obviously need the automatic "cost of living" increase recommended by President Nixon.

Congress faces the difficult problem of paying for increases. Payroll taxes are now at 9.6% and under the present law will go up to 10.4% by 1971. This combined with a normal 20% income tax, and state and local taxes, means that the government is taking one out of every three dollars from many workers' earnings.

Another increase in Social Security taxes could seriously affect the wage earner who is desperately trying to buy groceries and keep shoes on his children.

This dilemma must be solved with a two pronged attack. Inflation must be stopped and a means must be found to increase Social Security payments to a decent and respectable level. And this can't be done with just the usual election year increase. Something new is required!

The old Townsend Plan which was considered so radical in its day was actually conservative by today's standards.

DEBBIE UNDERWOOD

The senior class is making plans for the Senior Marathon basketball game which will be held this Friday following our afternoon varsity game with Los Gatos. Admission is a quarter for all participants and observers. Unless the seniors can still stay on their feet past 10 p.m., another co-ed basketball game is scheduled for recreation until 12 midnight.

At a senior class meeting held before school Oct. 14, it was decided the Senior Ball will be held at the La Rinconada Club on April 10, 1970. Plans are already being made which will be, for most seniors, the biggest memory of their senior year.

Seniors of the month for the months of September and October have been chosen. The class of '70's president, Dick Bebb, and Marie Daughtery are the outstanding ones for September. October's favorites are Russ Ferrante, varsity football player, and Kay Grano, a Camden letter girl. Boys and girls are nominated for their outstanding service to the senior class and all-around good character. Elections are then held during lunches in which seniors may vote on whom they think is qualified.

Camden's baby Cougars crushed through Saratoga Falcon lines to bring home a victorious win, with the final score of 28-6. In the Halloween night match, held at the Los Gatos High School stadium, the varsity players were upset by a defeating score of 48-6.

Plagued by injuries suffered by Mike Lopez (dislocated shoulder), Don Shultz (broken kneecap) and our top quarterback, Gary Harris (sprained back), the Cougars were unable to come back with a score after a first inning touchdown. However, we are confident of a victory comeback this Friday when we meet the Los Gatos Wildcats.

Ever aware of the increasing drug abuse problems among today's youth, a freshman class seminar was held yesterday, and will again go on tomorrow. Half of the class went to the boys' gym to hear Mr. Haskell Bowen, district superintendent of physical education, sophomore science, and teen recreation, speak on the dangers and perils through use of drugs.

The other half met in the cafetorium to hear two youths recall their experiences of drug hang-ups. Gordon McLean presented some films and answered any questions students may have. Tomorrow the groups will switch and hear the program in which they did not participate in Tuesday. The purpose of this seminar is to make youth today aware of the seriousness of drugs in their lives.

Campbell's rallies will now be optional rallies. They will be held at 2 p.m. No one is required to stay for these rallies, but it is hoped that many will stay to show their support for our teams.

At last week's student council meeting, the yearbook staff made a request for $400 to cover additional expenses for the yearbook. Although $5,400 is already allotted for the yearbook, additional funds are needed to make this year's book the best one yet.

Nov. 21 marks the date for another student body dance. The Council is now looking into three different bands to see which is available on that Friday night. The bands under consideration are Loading Zone, Stain Glass, and People.

Joe Alvarez, Campbell's varsity quarterback was named Player-of-the-Week for his performance in the game against Westmont last Friday in which Campbell walked over Westmont, 41 to 16. Joe is a member of the class of '71.

This week Campbell plays Prospect and the varsity game will be held at Prospect. On Thursday, the frosh-soph plays on Campbell's turf.

Obituaries

ROBERT VALONE, JR.

Funeral services were held Tuesday for 10-year-old Robert Russell Valone, Jr., who was killed in a car accident Halloween night while out trick-or-treating with friends on Quito Road. The accident occurred at the poorly-lit corner of Quito and Bucknall roads.

Robert, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Valone of 3998 Hamilton Park Dr., was a native of Maryland. The family had moved to this area a year ago.

Besides his parents, he leaves his brothers and sister, Cheryl, Robin and Mickie and grandmother Mrs. Tressa Stokes of Martinsburg, W.V.

Services were held from the Campbell Memorial Chapel with burial in the Los Gatos Memorial Park.

MARION JUEAL

Final services were conducted Monday morning for Mrs. Marion Josephine Jueal, 85, who passed away Oct. 31 in Campbell, following a long illness. A native of Chicago, Ill., she had been making her home in Campbell for the last 18 years.

Services were conducted from the Campbell Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Anthony Wayne Myers officiating. Final interment will be in the Mt. Hope Cemetery in Chicago where she will rest next to her husband, the late Roy H. Jueal. The family requests donations to the American Cancer Society.

Mrs. Jueal is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Hogle Russell and a son, Roy Jueal, both of Campbell, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Del Mar Dateline

By Sharon Farmer

Letters of Commendation were awarded to Kevin Komsthoeft, Ken Marray and Jeff Solar for their high performance on the 1969 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Foreign exchange students welcomed by Del Mar this year are Vesna Milkovic and Marjoke Piek.

Vesna, from Koper, Yugoslavia, says she would like to learn the American way of life, although it is not too different from her own country.

"I want to live with all the people at school and with my family to find out how they live and the differences", states Marjoke. "The main purpose of Youth for Understanding is to get a better understanding between people all over the world". Marjoke is from the Netherlands.

Del Mar varsity was stampeded by the Longhorns last Friday 18-0. The little Dons were also overcome by Leigh Thursday 28-6. Frosh-soph will meet Westmont on their field Thursday. Friday varsity will attack the Warriors on our field.

Del Mar's cross-country team met with their first defeat of the year–at the hands of Saratoga Thursday. This loss hampers their hope of a league championship this year. Next week the Dons meet Camden here. If they beat Camden it will be a 3-way tie for first between Del Mar, Camden and Saratoga.

Westmont Whirl

By Linda Hall

Westmont's sixth annual Halloween dance was held last Friday on the very night of the spooky holiday. The band, Radio, played at the dance to resolve the fear of the spooks.

A creeking old house, rumored as haunted, was borrowed only for the earlier part of the night. Famous paintings, old and dusty, of the monsters from the past were hung each at their own natural slant. Bats and spiders infested the room from the corners and the ceiling.

Many of the guests were dressed as witches, ghosts and goblins to please the spooks. Later on during the dance, the costumes were judged by Mr. Crabtree, Mrs. Hicks and Mr. Dwyer.

The title of most original was the Alien Representative from Nod Eriugem, better known as Don McGuire.

"Have Mercy" clown, Karen Shehan, was considered the funniest costume.

The cave man, Alan Hauck, was named the most realistic.

The best couple, Jan Beers and Rosie Heinen, were dressed as the dirty old man and the ugly old lady.

The dance ended an hour before the bewitching magic of midnight when the spirits awakened to bring down their torment upon the mortals of Westmont.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Hundreds view 1970 new cars show at grand opening

Coincident with the new car show were art displays and demonstrations by a group of Creative Artists under the direction of Bea Griffin. Both the car show and the art demonstrations ran throughout the weekend and drew a steady crowd of viewers.

The special shows this past weekend were part of a continuing series of special events and activities being scheduled during the opening weeks of the new Campbell Key Market. This weekend will feature a helicopter "bombardment" of the center with gift-filled ping pong balls by the Hurley Birds helicopters. Next week the market will feature rides in the unique San Francisco Cable Cars.

Heading the market's promotion department is Jim Erlandson, public relations director for the Key Market chain.

Winner of the bike given away by Key Market during the opening was Dorothy Parrish, 198 N. First St.

Visitors to the grand opening of the new Key Market in the Campbell Center were given a preview of many of the outstanding new cars for 1970. Displayed were new car models provided by Grant Bishop Chevrolet, Fox Motors, West Valley Dodge-Rambler and Wilson Stevens Pontiac-GMC, all of Los Gatos.

Included in the display which occupied much of the front area of the Campbell Center parking lot on Winchester Blvd. were Chrysler New Yorker and Town and Country, Plymouth 'Cuda 8, Plymouth Fury and the popular Plymouth Road Runner 8 by Fox Motors; the Malibu, Caprice, Camaro, Nova and Monte Carlo Chevrolet models by Grant Bishop; the Dodge Challenger, Rambler AMX, Jeep V-6 and Fiat 850 Coupe by West Valley Dodge-Rambler, and the Pontiac LeMans Sport Hardtop Coupe and the Pontiac Catalina Hardtop Coupe by Wilson Stevens.

Police reports quiet Halloween

A very quiet Halloween was observed in Campbell this year with only a few small children accompanied by parents out "Trick-or-Treating". A good many teen-agers were holding private parties and fathers were seen out patrolling the streets as a precaution against the violence experienced early in the month in the valley.

Several malicious mischief deeds were reported to Campbell police however, with David Alan Keeney, 15, 1408 Burrows Rd. apparently being shot by either a stray bullet or a deliberate shooting attempt as he was walking along Hacienda Ave. around 8 p.m. Halloween night. David had bent over to scratch his ankle when he was shot in the left hand and leg. After being taken to Campbell Community Hospital it was found that a bullet had entered his left leg and lodged against the bone.

The Jumpin' Bean restaurant on Campbell Ave. was the target of rocks, with four large windows being broken while a bike was hurled through a window of a private residence.

WVC drama group presents play

The locale is an abandoned theater on the lower east side of New York, the only remaining structure in a vast jumble of demolition. It will soon tumble beneath the pricks and blows of the wreckers.

The stage is occupied by a shivering collection of strays who have made pallets on boxes and covers out of threads and shreds of ancient draperies.

This is the scene which will be presented when the drama department of West Valley College, under the direction of Charles Hoover, presents William Saroyan's "The Cave Dwellers," Nov. 6, 7 and 8 in the college's Campbell campus auditorium.

DAKOTA CLUB

The monthly meeting of The Dakota Club will be held Monday, Nov. 10 at the Stone Church on Lincoln Ave., in Willow Glen. A pot luck dinner will be held starting at 6:30 and all former Dakotans and friends are welcome. Ph. 378-2835 for further information.

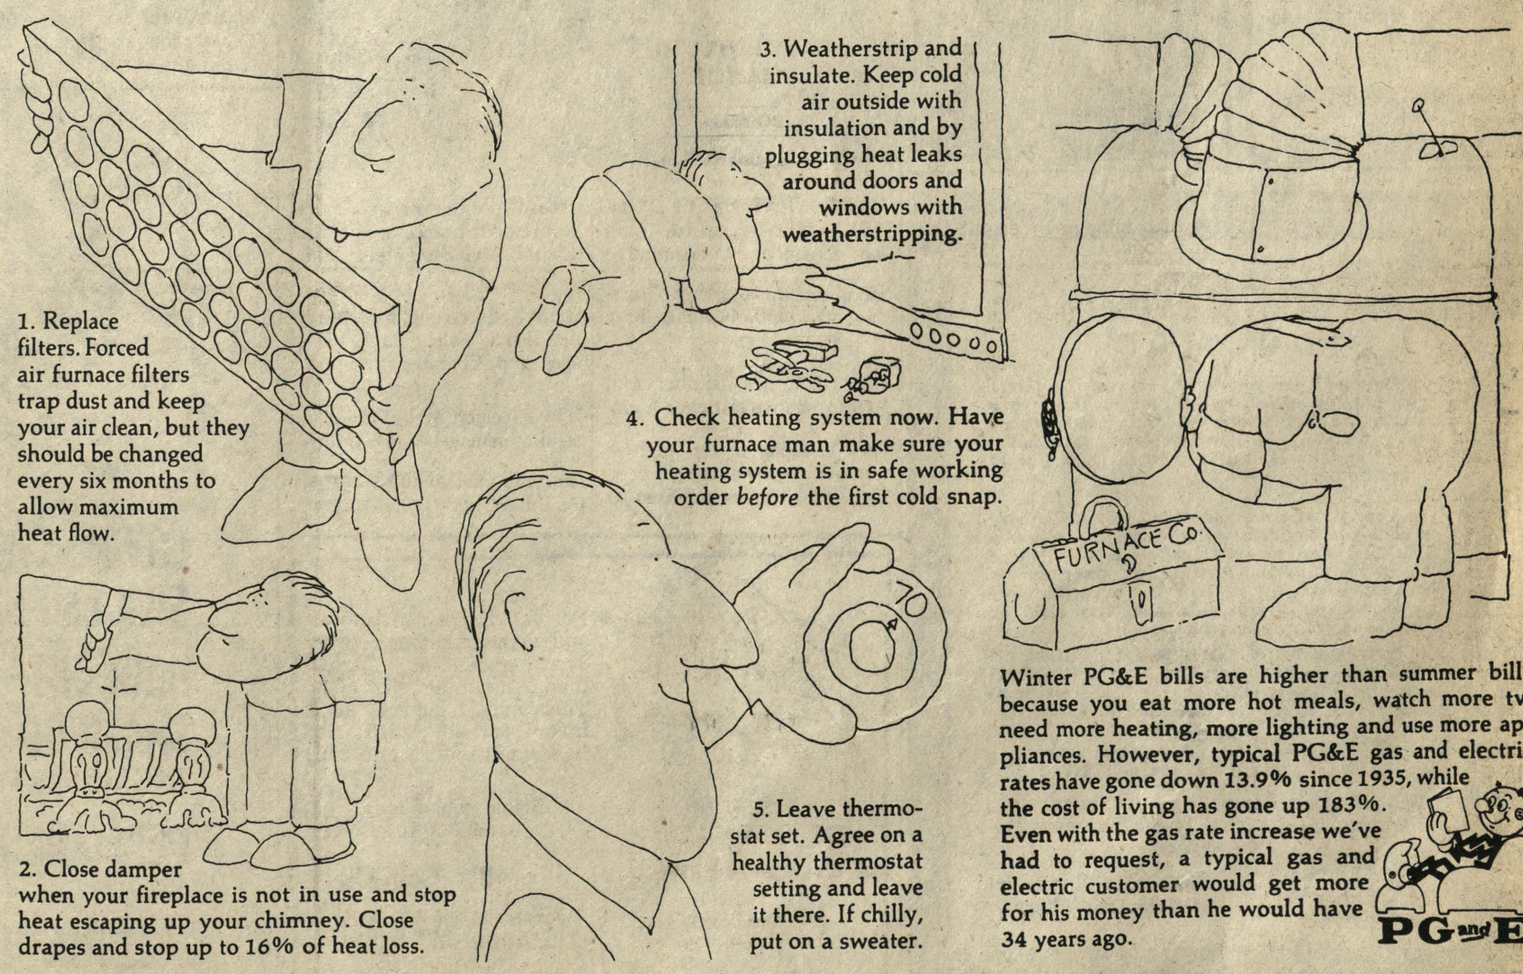
How to beat the rising cost of winter.



1. Replace filters. Forced air furnace filters trap dust and keep your air clean, but they should be changed every six months to allow maximum heat flow.
2. Close damper when your fireplace is not in use and stop heat escaping up your chimney. Close drapes and stop up to 16% of heat loss.
3. Weatherstrip and insulate. Keep cold air outside with insulation and by plugging heat leaks around doors and windows with weatherstripping.
4. Check heating system now. Have your furnace man make sure your heating system is in safe working order before the first cold snap.
5. Leave thermostat set. Agree on a healthy thermostat setting and leave it there. If chilly, put on a sweater.
FURNACE Co.

Winter PG&E bills are higher than summer bills because you eat more hot meals, watch more tv, need more heating, more lighting and use more appliances. However, typical PG&E gas and electric rates have gone down 13.9% since 1935, while the cost of living has gone up 183%. Even with the gas rate increase we've had to request, a typical gas and electric customer would get more for his money than he would have 34 years ago.

PASSER(?)---Virgil Gray, a former Campbell High gridder, is doing a fine job at his wing position for the West Valley College soccer team. The first year player is a fine passer and controls the ball well. The Vikings will take on San Francisco City College this Friday at the local field.

West Valley Sports

A number two statewide ranking and California's leading ground gainer highlight football at West Valley College this week. The Vikings held down the runner-up spot going into last Saturday night's game with Solano, a 49-19 Valley win, behind Bakersfield, a loser to Pasadena last weekend.

West Valley, having itsbest football vear ever, was also tabbed as the nation's 10th team going into the Solano contest as Bakersfield wrapped up the number three ranking. The Vikes, with a 7-0 season marking, are one of the few unbeaten teams left in the state and the only one in Northern California.

Major reasons for the Vikings high rankings are Dave and Larry Ray and quarterback Bill Barnes.

The Valley gridders will battle Santa Rosa Junior College Saturday night at Buck Shaw Stadium, putting their unbeaten mark on the line against a tough Bear Cat team. Santa Rosa has defeated Shasta 28-7, Sierra 13-0, Napa 24-8 and Solano 7-6 en route to one of their better seasons after a 1968 cellar finish. The game will begin at 8 p.m. at the Santa Clara University field.

West Valley's Andy Morris, a first-year fullback, rambled for 98 yards in 15 tries but was overshadowed by D. Ray's 201 - yard performance. Another halfback, Rich DeFelice, charged for 67 yards as the three led the Vikes to 383 total ground yards.

X-COUNTRY

After winning their second consecutive 1969 contest, a 22-33 triumph over Contra Costa, the West Valley College cross-country team will be looking for a miracle next Friday when they host DeAnza on their Saratoga course. The Vikes, with a 2-2 Camino Norte standing, will need a remarkable effort to salvage a winning season.

The unbeaten Dons will be set to continue their string in this CNC closer.

The two rival schools battled in the '68 finals with the Dons stealing a title from Valley.

SOCCER

After a very rocky first half in 1969, could the West Valley College soccermen take the role of a spoiler in the Western Junior College Soccer Conference?

Three teams are up there with only one loss. Canada and Skyline, two new schools in the area, are on the top with CCSF and giving the long-time soccer power a run. But West Valley, who lost 6-1 to SF in the first half in 'Frisco, will be out to win Friday in one of the Vikes few remaining home games.

INTRAMURALS

The Fly Swatters garnered an unbeaten record to take the West Valley College intramural touch football championship for 1969. The squad, including eight grads of Los Gatos High, ended with an 8-0 marking.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

The West Valley College women's volleyball team will be out to notch up win number two next Monday when they invade the Spartan gym to challenge San Jose State at 4 p.m. The girls have beaten Monterey Peninsula College but dropped a contest to San Jose City last week.

WATER-POLO

The four-year college water-polo teams are on the schedule for West Valley College in the coming week along with only one junior college match-up. The vikings will host the Santa Clara University splashers on Wednesday and the Stanford University Froshmen on Friday before battling Monterey Peninsula College at 11 a.m. on Saturday in Monterey.

The 'Stanford Freshmen outclassed Valley 6-3 just two weeks ago at the Indians pool.

Queen contest kicks off WVC homecoming

Pickle to pie eating, baby bottle sucking, and tricycle and bed races will be in evidence at West Valley College the week of Nov. 10 as the Viking student body celebrates Homecoming Week.

The week will begin with the announcement of the five finalists in the Homecoming Queen contest. Also on Nov. 10 a powder puff football game will be played at the Campbell field at 3 p.m.

On Wednesday of that week, the baby bottle sucking contest, an ice melting contest and the pickle eating contest will be held in the student union at 12:30 p.m.

On Thursday a pie eating contest, tug-of-war and rally will be held on the Campbell field at 12:30 p.m. followed by a bonfire rally at the Saratoga campus at 7:30 that evening.

A tricycle race and bed race at 12:30 p.m. on Friday will be culminated that evening with homecoming activities and the football game with DeAnza College, followed by a dance and selection of the Homecoming queen.

According to Daryl Kirk, director of Homecoming week, the club or organization that scores the most points during the contests that week will be awarded $100, while second and third place winners will receive $25 and $10 respectively.

COMBAT AWARD

Marine Corporal Jimmy R. Baird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Baird of 1287 Collean Way, Campbell, was awarded the Combat Action Ribbon while serving with Headquarters Battalion, First Marine Regiment, First Marine Division in Vietnam.

The Combat Action Ribbon is awarded to those men who have been directly endangered by enemy fire or explosives.

GIRLS JOIN IN---Quito Little League now has a girls auxiliary, composed for high school age sisters of the Little Leaguers. After sitting in the stands for several years, the girls decided to get into the act as a "fun and service" group and will serve as scorekeepers, poster makers, in the snack bar and wherever else needed. "Fun" is also part of the program and as a starter they will hold their first dance Friday, Nov. 7 at 8 p.m. at Westmont High School, 4805 Westmont Ave. Open to all young people in the area, with admission set at $1.25, with the music group "Fritz" playing. Cindy Porus is director for the group with the Quito Little League Women's Auxiliary acting as advisors. Above, two girls post one of their banners advertising the dance.

Doetsch appeals to teenagers to march Nov. 9 for leukemia

Teen-agers in Campbell will be marching on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 9, soliciting funds from door-to-door to be used by St. Jude Children's Research Hospital for leukemia research. The young marchers will be soliciting funds under the leadership of Ralph Doetsch, city chairman for the ALSAC drive, and as part of the nationwide and Campbell city drive on Nov. 9 as "The Danny Thomas Teenagers March Day".

Doetsch, Campbell City Councilman, will be assisted by Don Hebard, Campbell Parks and Recreation Commission chairman; Bill Podgorsek, Parks and Recreation commissioner; Tony Van Laarhoven, Hazelwood School principal and Carl F. Kuhn, city manager assistant.

Leukemia disease has doubled in frequency in the past 20 years, and children, 16 and under with leukemia, childhood tumors, muscle disorders are admitted to St. Jude's upon referral from the family physician. The hospital is associated with the University of Tennessee.

Campbell teen-agers wishing to make a contribution towards leukemia research by soliciting funds for two hours on Nov. 9 should call Doetsch at 378-3331 or any of the chairmen and volunteer their help for the project. An estimated 80 teen-agers are needed to help canvass the community.

BRICKLAYERS NEEDED--

The new field house at the Campbell-Moreland Pony League baseball field at Rincon Park is only half-completed at the present time.

Bricklayers are badly needed to complete the structure.

Anyone interested in lending a hand in this worthwhile project is asked to contact Peter Kogin, 378-2905.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Al Salciccia

Of all the passers who have ever played pro football, which one had the best percentage of completed passes in a season? ...Record is held by Sammy Baugh, who in 1945, completed 70% of his throws... No other regular pro passer has ever topped that.

Oddly enough, here's a football question that looks easy, but it's surprising how few fans - - even the real good ones - - can answer it ... Try it on your friends and see... The question is this: Everybody knows a football field is 100 yards long from goal line to goal line - - but, do you know how WIDE a football field is?... A football field is 160 feet, or 53 1/3 yards wide.

When was the first time a football game was ever on television?... First football telecast in history was on Sept. 30, 1939 ... The game was between Fordham and Waynesburg and it was televised in New York City.

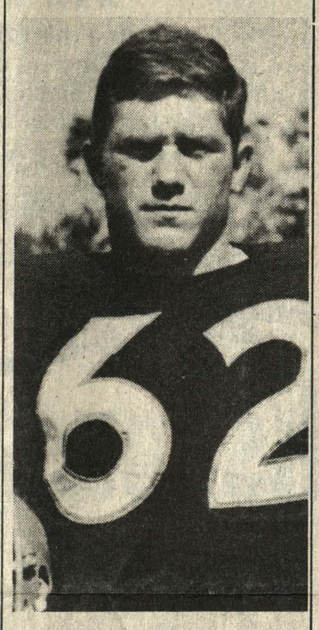
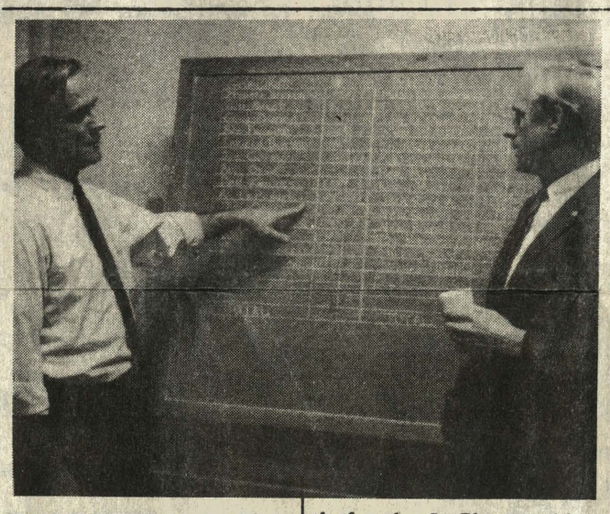
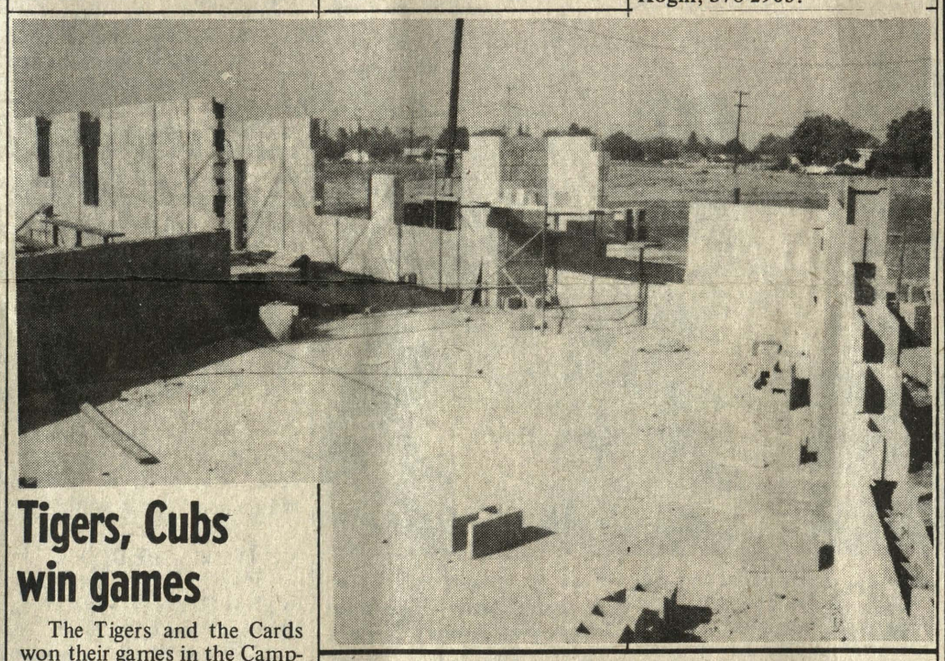
BIRTHDAY GREETINGS---Len Edholm, Campbell Chamber of Commerce manager, received his 31st birthday cake and lighted candle Thursday, Oct. 30. Birthday greetings were extended during final counting of the Chamber membership drive.



VIKING LINEBACKER---One of the main reasons for the success of West Valley College on the gridiron this fall (the top team in the state) has been the performance of Mike Lombardi, 5'10" 205 - pounder who blocked a punt last week to set up a score of 45-19 against Solano. The Vikings tangle with Santa Rosa this Friday night in Buck Shaw stadium in Santa Clara.



THE WINNER!---Myron Alexander, Goblins team captain for the recent Chamber of Commerce one-day membership drive, points to the total of six and a half new members brought in by Al La Plante. The one-half was explained by the fact that La Plante and his partner, Ken Mantle, both of New York Life, were on different teams and split their membership between them. The Goblins accounted for 22½ members and the Ghosts 19½.



Tigers, Cubs win games

The Tigers and the Cards won their games in the Campbell Winter League played at Rincon Park last Saturday.

The Tigers beat the Cards 13-6 and the Cards won from the A's 5-2.

John Butruce pitched two perfect innings for the Cubs as did Gary Haney for the A's in two innings.

Top hitters for the two games were Kurt Lizer, of the Cubs, with two hits and Ken Pimentel, of the Cards, with two triples. Don Cox of the Tigers had a perfect three-for-three at the plate.

But it was Wayne Hagen, of the Tigers, who had the big hit of the day. He collected a bases-loaded triple in the fifth inning of the first game.
